November 4, 2025

To Our Shareholders:

Consistent with today's leadership announcement for our publicly listed BDC, Sixth Street Specialty Lending, Inc. ("TSLX"), we are excited to announce that Robert ("Bo") Stanley has been named Co-CEO of Sixth Street Lending Partners ("SSLP"), effective immediately. In conjunction with Bo's appointment, we published a letter to stakeholders (linked here) that we encourage you to read. Given the consistency of management teams, investment philosophy and overall operations between TSLX and SSLP, the messaging of our letter applies to both businesses.

As part of this evolution, the Board of Trustees (the "Board") increased the size of the Board and appointed John D. Hershey and Bo Stanley as trustees as of November 4, 2025. Mr. Hershey's and Mr. Stanley's appointments bring the total number of trustees to nine, five of whom are not "interested persons" of the Company as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. Mr. Hershey will serve on the Board as a trustee who is not an "interested person" and each of Messrs. Hershey and Stanley will serve until their successor is duly elected and qualified. Also on November 4, 2025, Mr. Hershey was appointed as a member of the Company's Audit Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Going forward, I will continue to serve as Chairman of SSLP. There are no changes to my existing positions as Co-President and Co-Chief Investment Officer of the broader Sixth Street platform, which consists of ten investment platforms, including direct lending, and over $115 billion in assets under management. This decision is made with considerable optimism for the future of the company. Bo has been integral to the investment leadership of the business for several years, and this transition formalizes our existing collaborative structure. I have long believed in the importance of developing and promoting talent within the organization, and we have an exceptional leadership team deserving of this recognition. I am incredibly proud of what we have accomplished together and even more excited for what lies ahead under Bo's leadership.

Sincerely,

Joshua W. Easterly
Chief Executive Officer (for the last time) and Chairman of Sixth Street Lending Partners
